

Are the Commandments of God Written in Your Heart?

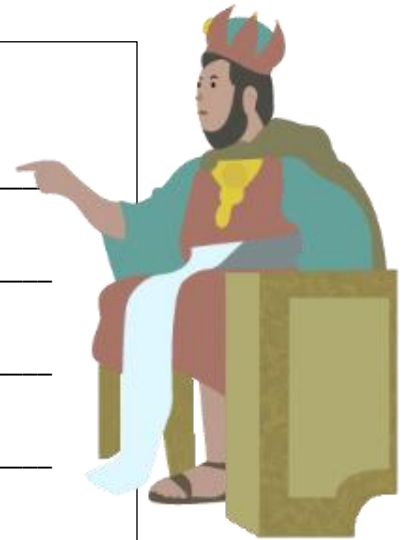

In Mosiah 13:11, Abinadi tells King Noah and his priests that the commandments of God are not written in their hearts. Take some time to study the commandments God has given in the scriptures or through latter-day prophets. Write some of these commandments in the large heart above and color in the rest of the page.

Abinadi vs. King Noah

Abinadi was...

Noah was...

The story of Abinadi and King Noah gives us a chance to compare the lives and characteristics of two men. They illustrate for us the two paths we can choose in life. Use the lines above to write down some of the characteristics of these two men and think about which of the characteristics you would like to develop.
