The Story of Alma the Younger and the Four Sons of Mosiah

(see Mosiah 25-27)

King Mosiah made Alma the Elder the High Priest over the Church. Alma had a son named Alma the Younger. He did not believe the teachings of his father and became a wicked man. Alma the Younger and the four sons of King Mosiah fought against the Church. They persuaded many people to leave the Church and become wicked. Alma prayed that his son would learn the truth and repent. Alma the Younger and the sons of Mosiah were traveling to a different city when an angel appeared to them. The angel spoke in a loud voice that shook the ground. The five men were so frightened that they fell down. At first they could not understand what the angel was saying. The angel had come to answer the prayers of the Church members. The angel asked Alma the Younger why he was fighting against the Church. The ground shook as the angel told Alma the Younger to stop trying to destroy the Church. Alma the Younger was so astonished that he could not speak or move after the angel left. The sons of Mosiah carried Alma the Younger to his father and told him all that had happened to them. Alma was happy. He knew God had answered his prayers. Alma, along with other Church leaders, fasted and prayed and asked God to help Alma the Younger become strong again. After two days and two nights, he was finally able to speak and move. He told the people he had repented of his sins and God had forgiven him. He was happy. Alma the Younger and the sons of King Mosiah began to teach the truth throughout the land, telling everyone what they had seen and heard. Many people listened and believed.
