

Jesus Christ Stands with Open Arms to Receive Me

On the lines below, write the ways you see the influence of the Savior in your life. You may make a list of your blessings, or write a story of how you overcome a trial by feeling the Savior near. When you are done, think about how you can draw closer to the Savior and allow his help more often in your life.

Jesus Wants Me to Love Everyone

In Mormon 3, we read how Mormon loved others, even when it was hard. Use this list of ideas for ideas on how be more loving to others. Place a checkmark inside the heart when you have accomplished the task.

Pray for someone

Give someone a compliment

Tell someone you love them

Write a nice note to someone

Make someone their favorite food

Offer to do a service for someone
